

The Secret Wardrobe

Silently, Lucy entered a mysterious room, it had a towering piece of furniture in the middle of the empty dull space, it was covered by a dusty white sheet. Gently, Lucy tugged the sheet and it fell flawlessly down on the floor. There was an antique wardrobe.

Without thinking, Lucy turned the key and opened the door, she went into the wardrobe and slid through, brushing against the soft winter coats. Suddenly, she felt a prickle of a pine tree. Lucy jumped from confusion turning her head slowly to see a white wintery forest. She searched for any human life.

Lucy explored the place for a while and came across an old black lamppost but the lamppost was lit up, there must have been a person there before her.
